

NIC XV Satellite School on experimental and theoretical methods in Nuclear Astrophysics with applications

Code of conduct

All attendees of the NIC XV Satellite School will be expected to follow the JINA-CEE code of conduct reported below, extended to harassment related to political and philosophical convictions.

Accordingly, all attendees are expected to show respect and courtesy to other attendees throughout the workshop and to abide by the following Code of Conduct.

Any participant who wishes to report a violation of this policy is encouraged to speak to Lucio Gialanella (lucio.gialanella@unicampania.it) or Liz Morales Gallegos (moralesgallegos@na.infn.it), as they have agreed to serve as a point of contact . Thank you for helping make this a welcoming, friendly event for all.

JINA_CEE Code of Conduct

JINA-CEE workshops and conferences are committed to providing a harassment-free environment for everyone, regardless of gender, sexual orientation, disability, physical appearance, body size, race, nationality, or religion.

Harassment includes offensive verbal comments or jokes related to gender, sexual orientation, disability, physical appearance, body size, race, religion, sexual images in public spaces, deliberate intimidation, stalking, following, harassing photography or recording, sustained disruption of talks or other events, inappropriate physical contact, and unwelcome sexual attention. All communication should be appropriate for a professional audience including people of many different backgrounds. Be kind to others. Do not insult or put down other attendees. Behave professionally. Participants asked to stop any harassing behavior are expected to comply immediately. Attendees violating these rules may be asked to leave the event at the sole discretion of the conference organizers.
